LOCAL MARKETS.

FARMERS, ATTENTION

Another Fall Season is upon us and you will need information about what is shown and what to buy. Many stores in this country buy anything that comes along; not so here-we search in all the out corners of the manufacturing world and compare prices and qualities, and only after seeing all do we begin to buy. We have eighteen other stores in Canada buying with us, and in this way we are able to underbuy and also undersell most of our competitors. This season's stock is piling in on us each day and we were never in better form to do business than we are now. Keep this in mind-we sell the most reliable goods that are to be found in the Dry Goods market.

The reliable kind, soft in finish, bright in color and always up to the standard in qualify. Some tempting offerings that are not always available came our way and we bought heavy. The consequence is that wonderfully low prices are in order in our alk accesses of the content of the content

A Week of Bargains at

The Big Clothier.

Cleaning up the Summer Season's Business will extend into the first half of September. Cleaning up time is expensive, but stock cannot be allowed to accumulate from season to season at Gough's. Counters and shelves must be emptied for the incoming Fall Goods.

It's Practical Economy to ...Buy at Gough's...

The Big Store is the open gate to gilt edged investments. Could easily do as other stores do—keep up prices and pack away what's left till next year. But that isn't Gough's way of doing business. We insist on opening each season with a new stock. It pays in the long run.

ALL MEN'S SUITS

Be they fancy or plain, light or dark, sack or frock, all (with the sole exception of Full Dress Suits) are now offered for "HALF OFF," means just what it says:—

OUR New Store impresses all. Nothing could more foreibly demonstrate the potency of the new management than the opening's great success. The opening was a continuous ovation. Come Again, Boys!

We are keeping up our reputation with the boys and mothers of boys. Judging by the stacks of juvenile suits we have been selling, we're catering to a growing trade—the boys of you family. Everything to suit the boys fancy, the mother stacks and the father's pocket. New Russian, Sailor and Norfolk stylesses, and the piece and three-piece suits, and new young men's suits. THE HAT YOU WANT is here, at unprecedented prices; and so is the Underwear, that can't be beat for fit, finish and good value.

TAKE NOTICE!

Owing to the lack of space required in the Fair building, A. J.
